- One picture of you creating your work
- One booth display picture
- Check of Money Order for the full amount due

Mail completed applications to:
 CCAC Summer Arts Festival
 Attention Sandi Levy
 PO Box 2655
 Cedar City, UT 84721

Incomplete applications will be returned to the artist and will not be considered.

The application deadline is Monday, April 2, 2012. Late applications will only be considered if there is space available and the artist's category is not already full. All booth spaces are 10 x 10, and each artist will supply their own equipment (i.e., canopy, tables, chairs, extension cords, etc.)

This is a juried event. All entries will be reviewed during the week following the April 2 application deadline. Accepted artists will be notified on or before April 15, 2012. No application fees will be deposited until after an entry has been accepted/approved by the jury.

All items must be handmade/created by the applicant/artist. The jury reserves the right to request additional information/photos. Non-handmade items will not be allowed under any circumstances.

Your answers to the following are needed to assist us with the final layout of the show: Do you have a canopy: Yes No

Does your display have any unique characteristics that would affect show placement? No Yes (please explain)

Special Requirements _____

Do you need power? Yes No (Checking "yes" will not guarantee you power, but we will do our best!)

Artists who are accepted and find that they are unable to attend may request a full refund prior to June 1, 2012.

No refunds will be issued after June 1, 2012.

Applicants who are not accepted during the initial jury period (April 2 – 12, 2012) may be offered the option of being waitlisted in their category. These artists will be notified in the event an artist in their category withdraws. Application materials, including uncashed checks/money orders will be held by the planning committee. If an opening in the waitlisted artist's category does not occur prior to June 10, 2012, all application materials will then be returned to the respective artist. If you would like to be waitlisted if you are not chosen during the initial jury period, please check here:

Application materials, including the check, from artists who are not selected and choose not to be waitlisted will be returned in full as soon as the jury period concludes.

VENDOR INFORMATION SHEET & POLICIES FOR MAIN STREET PARK EVENTS

As an Arts Festival/GROOVEFEST vendor, you agree:

- Not to use any sound system, musical instruments, noise makers, loud speakers or sound amplification or broadcasting devices.
- Not to include weapons, alcohol or illegal drugs or paraphernalia for use, display or sale at or near your vendor booth.
- Not to distribute brochures, pamphlets, leaflets, flyers or other literature or promotional materials or conduct a drawing without consent.
- Not to use your vending space to promote, solicit or raise funds for any political, educational, religious, charitable or corporation or association unless authorized.
- No vendor space shall be sublet. No Exceptions!
- LIABILITY – Vendor agrees to hold harmless the Cedar City Arts Festival (CCAF) and GROOVEFEST American Music Festival (GAMF), its principals, agents, officers, volunteers and employees from all claims, losses, costs, damages or expense resulting or arising from any and all injuries to any person or property caused by an act, omission or neglect of Vendor's agents, employees, invitees, contractors, or guest while at CCAF/GAMF. We operate under Utah law; any/all claims will be subject to Utah law and bound by arbitration.
- Vendor agrees to use and occupy the vending space at own risk, and releases CCAF/GAMF from all claims of any damage, loss or injury to persons or property to the full extent permitted by law which may occur including, but not limited to damages, resulting from the acts of other vendors, theft, vandalism, fire and other damage arising from any defects at the premises. Vendors wishing to insure their goods must do so at their own expense.
- CCAF/GAMF are not liable for any claims for theft, damage, or injury to vendors or in conjunction with their goods or services. Your signature on the application is your signed waiver of responsibility.
- SPACE ASSIGNMENTS – Booth space is assigned by the CCAF/GAMF Committee who reserves the right to make any changes or adjustments to vendor space for whatever reason at any time. Vendors are not guaranteed a specific space. You cannot use benches or tables found in the city park in your booth. In the event that you requested and are assigned a booth with access to power, you will supply your own extension cord(s).
- INSTALLATION OF EXHIBITS – Vendor may arrive at the site Friday, June 22, 2012 at 7:00 am. and begin set-up unless prior arrangements have been made. Vendors wishing to may set up canopies/tables on Thursday June 21 between 4:00 – 8:00 p.m. No security is provided Thursday evening. The first act begins performance on the stage at approximately 11:00 am. Cedar City Parks & Recreation asks that absolutely NO vehicles be allowed onto the grass, ever, at any time. If you are in violation of this rule, you will be asked to leave the premises without reimbursement of fees.
- There is limited reserved parking. Parking is allowed anywhere along the perimeter of the park, in the dirt lot behind the Elk's Lodge (NOT on their paved lot or you will be towed) at the library north of the park, at Lin's Marketplace or at the city parking garage south of Lin's. The Post Office to the west will allow parking after business hours. Please make an effort to allow for festival patrons around the perimeter of the park. No motor homes/travel trailers will be allowed to park in the closed-off section of 100 E. This closed section will be for artist/vendor loading/unloading only. Parking of artist/vendor's vehicle will be allowed in this area.

- HOURS OF OPERATION –Vendors with power are encouraged to remain operating until the end of the last performance at approximately 11:00 pm Saturday, June 23, 2012; vendors without power are expected to remain open until at least 8:00 pm both Friday and Saturday. All vendors are expected to be open by 10:00 am each morning.
- DISMANTLING OF VENDOR SPACE – Vendor's entire exhibit and property must be removed from the premises by 2:00 am, Sunday, June 24, 2012. Vendor agrees to return vendor space to its original condition, meaning any and all garbage, boxes etc., that you used must be deposited in garbage containers or taken with you. Vendor agrees to reimburse any extra expense incurred in cleaning or repairing any damage caused to the vending site by vendor.
- VENDING SPACE – Vendor will not exceed dimensions on contract without prior consent. Vendor may not exhibit any material deemed offensive or objectionable, in the reasonable opinion of CCAF/GAMF or to the adjacent or surrounding Vendors or to the festival as a whole. Vendor shall maintain a responsible individual(s) in the Vending Space during festival hours and assume responsibility for the conduct of employee, agents, visitors or guest in or about your space. Familiarize them with all rules. At night, you may sleep in or near your space, be mindful of other vendors who will be sleeping in the area as well. It is imperative that you contain your booth at night so that animals or humans cannot search through your property or that the wind or rain won't damage or carry your items away. Full security is provided through Friday night/Saturday morning during dark hours.
- TAXES – Utah State sales tax forms will be distributed to you. Failure to report sales tax is punishable by law. An Iron County Temporary Business License that gives you the right to conduct business in the City Park on this specific day for this specific event will be filed by CCAF/GAMF on your behalf from your application fee.
- COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW – Vendor agents, employees, or assigns shall comply with all rules regulations and requirements of the Fire, Police and Health Departments or any entity having jurisdiction over the premises. You may be required to cease operation and vacate if you or your employees should be found to be in violation of any such lawful requirements.
- REMOVAL of EXHIBITS – CCAF/GAMF shall have the right, but no obligation, to remove any exhibit, booth, employee or agent of vendor or any banner, advertising matter or other property thereof for whatever reason, at any time and require that said shall immediately reimburse CCAF/GAMF for any cost of expense incurred in removal. Reasons for removal can mean a Vendor has entered under false pretenses or misrepresented themselves or is not in keeping with the character of the festival. If an exhibit is prohibited under these terms or because of any violation of stated rules, Vendor shall NOT be entitled to a refund of any monies or potential losses.
- SAFETY RULES – Vendors shall take all necessary precautions for the safety of their personnel, patrons and surrounding Vendors and shall comply with applicable provisions of federal, state and municipal safety laws, building codes and ordinances to prevent accidents or injury to individuals and or surrounding property.
