

For Immediate Release: Aug. 18, 2015
Cedar City Arts Council
PO Box 2655
Cedar City, UT 84721
Contact: Mary Anne Andersen, maryandersen@suu.edu

Cutline: Much Ado About Nothing performed at Heritage Center with CCAC support.

Artist Mini-Grant Applications Due Aug. 31

CEDAR CITY, UTAH: The Cedar City Arts Council encourages individual artists and arts organizations to apply for the Artists' Mini-Grants Awards due Aug. 31. Application and more information at http://www.cedarcityartscouncil.org/?page_id=141

Past projects have included educational workshops in creating jewelry, music for groups from children's choirs to quartets, printing art collection books, equipment to improve photography for the Southern Utah Space Foundation educational series, and bringing in artists for workshops to benefit local artists.

Grant funds may be used to purchase supplies or equipment, rent displays or performance venues, support mileage or registration costs to attend educational or training sessions, purchase promotional advertising, or other needs as demonstrated in the grant application.

It is helpful to include samples of previous work with the application. The CCAC Grants Committee reviews the applications and is pleased to offer several grants each cycle. Members of the CCAC help fund this project with their memberships to increase the artist offerings of our area. Membership information at http://www.cedarcityartscouncil.org/?page_id=278

All of the artists receiving awards are committed to sharing their skills and creations to enhance the cultural atmosphere of Cedar City. Many of them will present in the upcoming socials presented by the Cedar City Arts Council.

"As chair of the Cedar City Arts Council Artists' Grant Program, I've had money on my mind lately," said Mary Anne Anderson. "I've thought back to a scoutmaster friend of mine who gave me an interesting perspective on the nature of problems. His philosophy was, 'If it can be fixed with money, I'm relieved.' He meant that broken equipment or a dented fender were easy to repair compared to a broken heart or dented faith."

CCAC is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing the arts in Iron County. The mission is to foster a thriving arts community in Iron County through advocacy, appreciation, education, and support. The organization is completely volunteer-run, all of the funds CCAC receives through donations or memberships are used to help the arts thrive in this community.

###

Who: Cedar City Arts Council Awards

What: Artists' Mini Grant Applications due

When: Aug. 31, 2015

Where: Cedar City

Next Application Deadline: August 31, 2015

Application Link: http://www.cedarcityartscouncil.org/?page_id=141

Cedar City Arts Council is supported by generous contributions from the following agencies:

